FAQS

How do I know if I need a stylist?

A wedding stylist is an ideal investment for couples who want to create a visually beautiful and stress-free wedding experience. Most couples simply don't have the time, skills or connections to organise all of the finer details for their day - but these are the details that make all the difference for a truly unforgettable event!

We also find many of our couples have a vision in mind, but no idea how to tie their ideas together into a cohesive theme. A wedding stylist has the creative skills and industry expertise to make your vision a reality. We ensure every last detail - from furniture and decor to flowers, stationery and lighting - works harmoniously together to achieve your desired atmosphere. Not to mention saving you countless hours (and a whole lotta stress) trying to do it all on your own!

Can I have a Planner without Styling service?

Styling is our core business and we offer wedding planning as an add on services exclusively to our styling clients. We completely understand that no two couples are ever the same, which is why we offer a range of different packages to suit your needs.

Some of our couples decide to work with our wedding planner from the very beginning, while others may prefer to add a planning package closer to the day. Whether you want someone to oversee your entire event, finesse the finer details, or simply just host your ceremony - we can help.

Can I still be involved in the planning process?

Of course! The beauty of working with a wedding planner is that you can be involved as much or as little as you like. You can sit back, relax and allow us to manage your entire event from scratch - or, you can have us step in 6 weeks before the wedding to tie up any loose ends and coordinate your day. We take a collaborative approach, and will always keep you in the loop with open and honest communication.

What is the difference between a wedding stylist and a wedding planner?

Essentially, a wedding stylist will focus on how your day is going to look and feel, and the atmosphere you want to achieve. We will also arrange all the décor & furniture to complement your overall theme.

On the other hand, a wedding planner is more like the "project manager" of your wedding. With strong skills in organisation, multitasking and communication, they're the ones responsible for the function and flow of your wedding, including managing your suppliers, developing a timeline, and troubleshooting any issues that may arise on the day.

How does the process work?

First, we'll kick off with an initial consultation over the phone or in our Noosaville showroom, where we get to know you both as a couple.

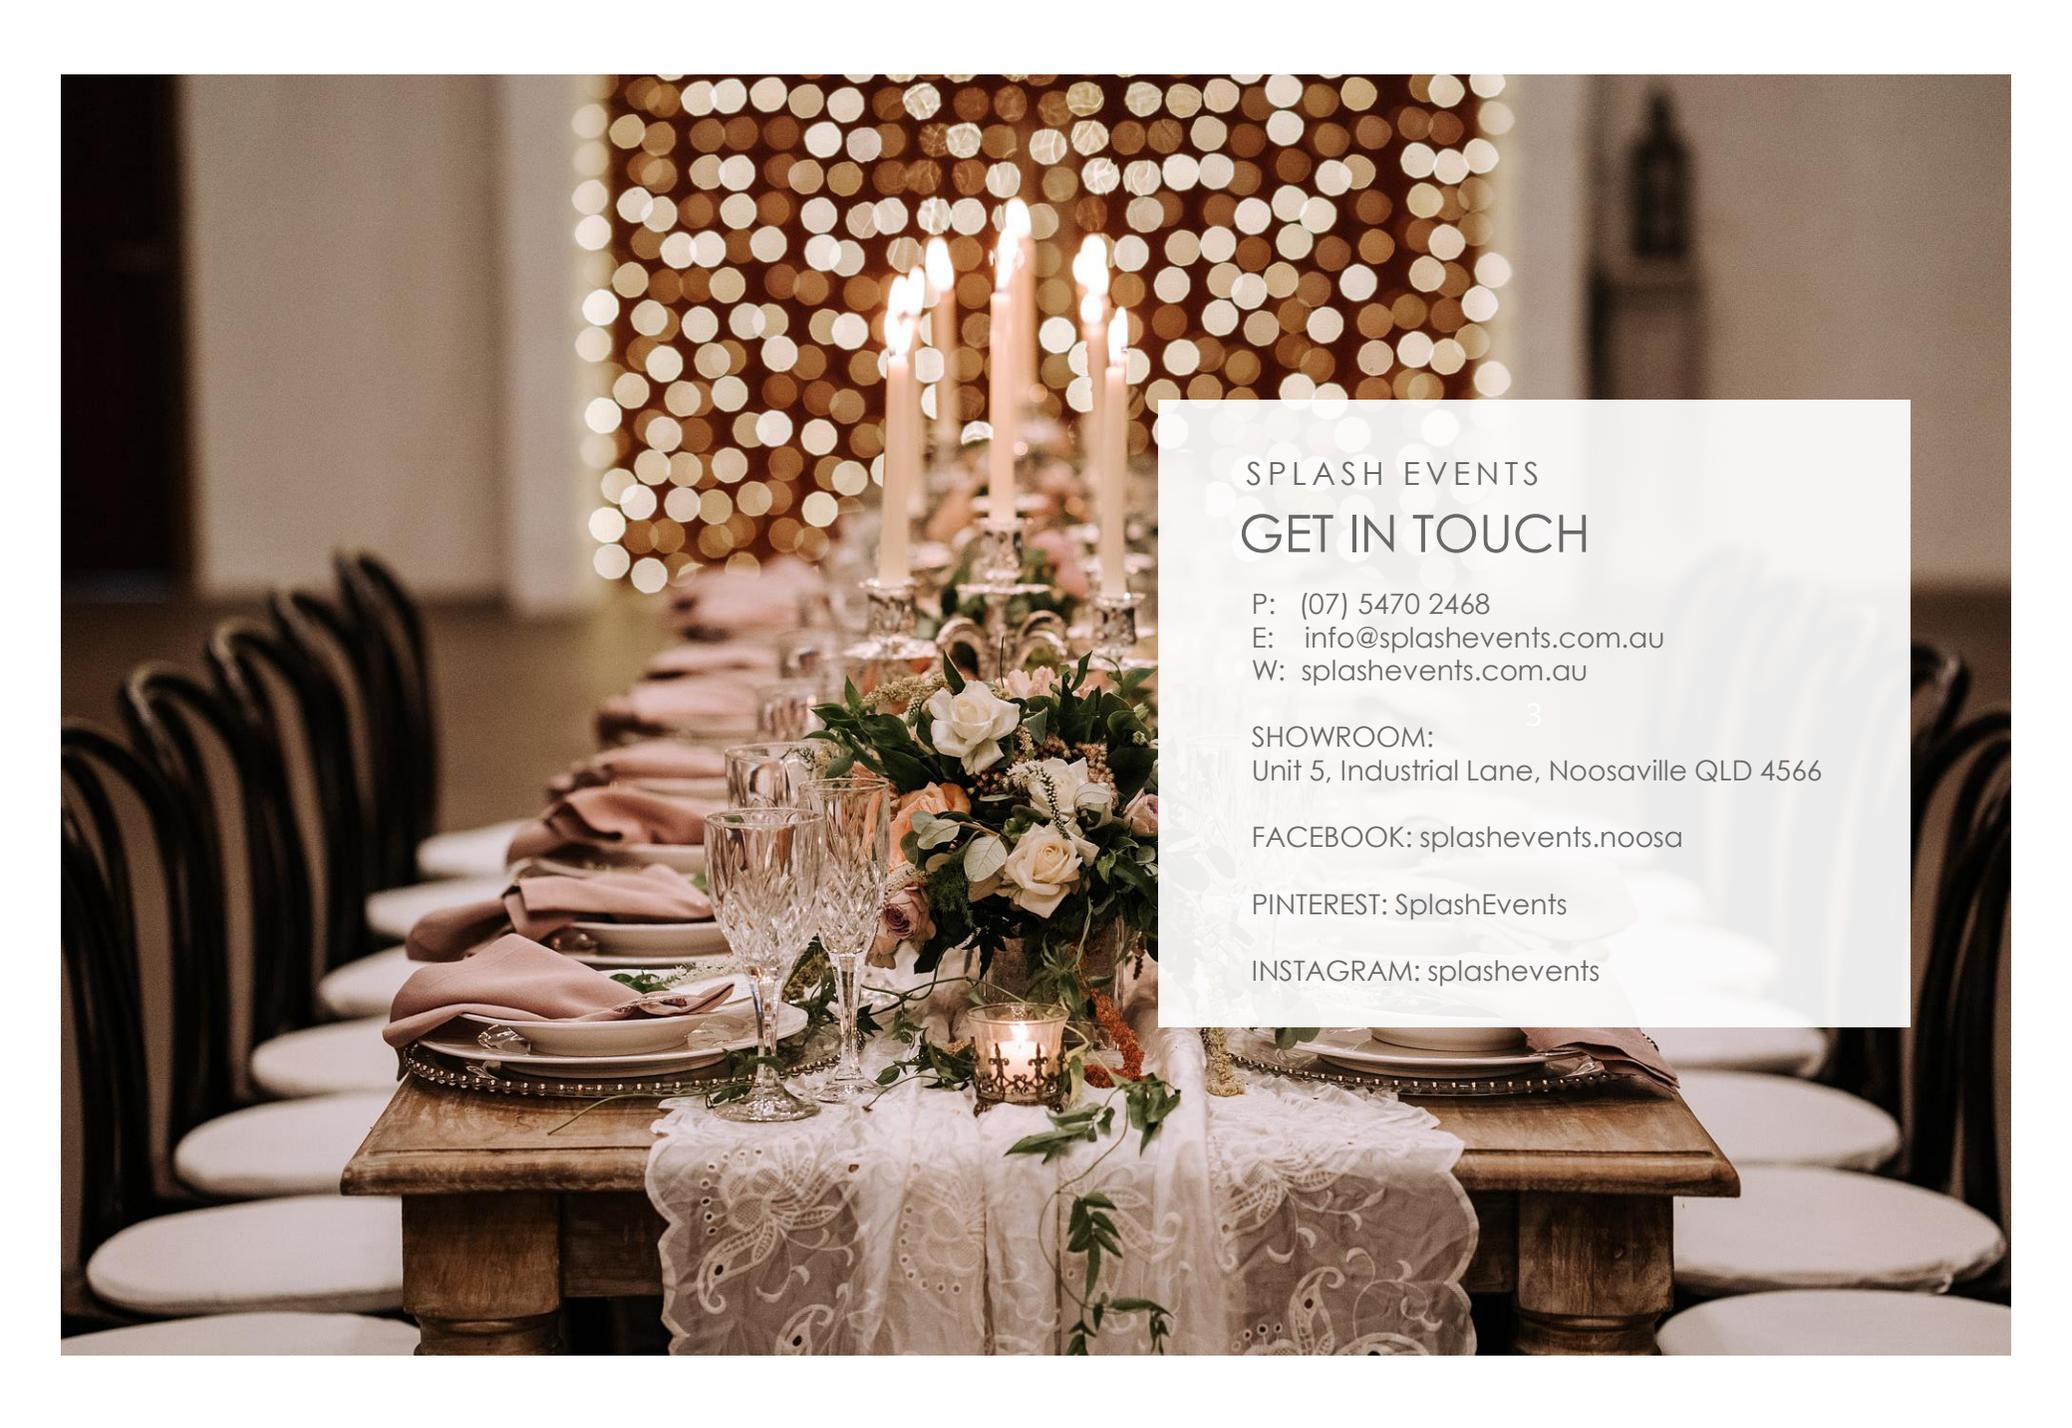

Then, the fun part! We'll present you with a custom design proposal that encapsulates your vision, including styling details and costs.

Finally, we'll get to work executing your vision. We'll bring the team of suppliers together, coordinate all of your styling elements, and ensure everything is immaculately presented on the day.

We will also pack everything up after so you don't have to lift a finger.

Where do we get started?

Let's get the ball rolling! Simply get in touch with our team so we can check availability, answer your questions and arrange an initial consultation.
